WYATT EATON 1849-96

Research on this noted American-Canadian portraitist is being undertaken at present by The Robert McLaughlin Gallery, Oshawa, Ontario, L1H 3Z3. Eaton's early work is emphasized, with particular interest in a famous piece, the Krans homestead (in the Eastern Townships, Quebec), with John Krans as a cowboy perched atop a rail fence and calling in his herd from the distant fields. A portrait of Philip Krans, John's brother, was in the trade ca. 1974 but has since disappeared. Jennifer C. Watson, Assistant Curator/Registrar, would appreciate information on these or other paintings, drawings, letters, documents, etc. All replies will be treated in confidence.
